

SOCIETY

"The Spirit of Hawaii"

Much interest is being shown in "The Spirit of Hawaii," the amateur performance which is to be given at the Hawaiian Opera House on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the proceeds of which entertainment are to be given to the Leali Home. The society ladies of the Outdoor Circle have taken an active part in making the affair a success and on Thursday chartered a bevy of society girls who sold tickets in the business section of the city. A strenuous ticket-selling campaign was conducted by these girls and when, in the afternoon they wearily sought rest at home, more than $500 had been placed in the hands of those in charge of the affair.

Those who conducted Thursday's campaign were: Committee of four chaperones, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. A. E. Murphy and Mrs. Montague Cooke.

The ladies who sold tickets were Mrs. A. Mathews, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Helen Dow, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Miss Beth Woods, Mrs. C. Hoogs, Mrs. W. Campbell, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Katherine Lenihan, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Margaret Robertson, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Dorothy Bayling, Miss Leonora Lenihan, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Miss Nora Sturges, Miss Dean, Miss Remy Catton, Miss Bertha Kopke, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Mary Catton, Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. Fred D. Lowrey, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Ruth Soner, Miss Alice Olson, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Ruth Shaw, Mrs. W. B. Lymer, Mrs. W. T. Rawlins and Mrs. B. H. Watkins of Fort Shafter.

Cards at Fort Shafter.

About twenty members of the army and gathered at the Fort Shafter clubhouse on Monday evening at the invitation of Mrs. Walter Atkinson who entertained at a farewell party in honor of her son Walter who left in the transport Sheridan on Thursday.

Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Atkinson's hospitality were General and Mrs. Edwards, Major and Mrs. Lenihan, Mr. and Mrs. Horner, Miss Beattie Edwards, Miss Margaret Porter, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Leonora Lenihan, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Lieutenant Robert Green, C. A. Lymer, A. Lymer, Polhemus, Campanella and Camp.

Mrs. Kelley Brown's Dancing Party.

On Monday evening, the tenth anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Brown, were host and hostess at one of the week's most delightful functions. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier, formerly the Cooper homestead, in Manoa, where the affair was given, was elaborately decorated with palms and fragrant tropical flowers. Mrs. Charles R. Frazier assisted the hostess as she received her guests during the evening. As the guests assembled the strains of a Hawaiian quartette club pealed forth and the light fantastic was tripped until the wee sma' hours.

The Dancers.

The dancers which are the delight of the younger set have been much in vogue this summer and a number of the farewell parties for the young folks have been the afternoon dancing parties. One of these, at which Miss Katie Singlehurst entertained on last Saturday afternoon, was in honor of Paty van Valkenburg who left this week for Vancouver where he will attend school. Those present were Paty van Valkenburg, the guest of honor, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Gladys Halstead, Miss Mildred Chapman, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Irma Halstead, Ernest Mott-Smith, Frank Winter, George Bromley, Desmond Stanley, Roy Graham, Jere Smith and the hostess.

Mrs. Ernest Ross' Dinner.

The members of the party who enjoyed Mrs. Francis Gay's hospitality at her home on Kaula this summer were guests at an informal dinner party on Monday evening at which Mrs. Ernest Ross was hostess. Fragrant white ginger blossoms were used effectively in the decorations. Quantities of the flowers were arranged in the living and dining rooms, while a lacy maidenhair ornamented the table. Covers were laid for Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Miss Amy Greenwell of Kona, Mrs. Francis Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Miss Laura Low, Ernest Gay, George Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. Bodge Entertains.

Mrs. E. E. Bodge was hostess at one of the most enjoyable functions of the week when she entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Irma Ballentyne at a tea at the Country Club.

The heat of the summer was quite forgotten as the cool mountain breezes blew across the pleasant lawn where the guests spent several delightful hours.

Mrs. Bodge's guests were: Miss Irma Ballentyne, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Rose Herbert and Miss Peggy Center.

Mrs. Overend Complimented.

Mrs. R. M. Overend was the complimented guest at a pleasant informal afternoon on Friday at which Mrs. G. Fred Bush was hostess. Several enjoyable house were wiled away at family returned from Waikaloa yesterday and are again at home on Kewalo street.

May Edith Taylor, who will appear as the Goddess in "The Spirit of Hawaii" at the Opera House September 16, 17 and 18, for the benefit of the Leali Home.

Mrs. R. M. Overend, Mrs. Zeno K. Myers, Mrs. W. J. Dyer, Mrs. Lackland, Mrs. Albert Horner, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Theodore Lansing, Mrs. F. T. Williams and Mrs. R. R. Relford.

The friends of Lieutenant and Mrs. W. H. Munter will be delighted to hear that they are due to arrive in Honolulu within the next few weeks. Lieutenant Munter having been ordered here to take the place of Lieutenant Mahr, who left this week for Norfolk, Virginia.

Mrs. Munter was formerly Miss Hazel Hoffman of this city and was one of Honolulu's most popular society girls.

Mrs. Robert Atkinson Entertains. One of the many entertainments given in honor of Paty van Valkenburg, prior to his departure for Vancouver, was that given by Mrs. Robert Atkinson last Friday at her home at Pearl City. A table decorated with bright red carnations was set for ten guests at luncheon, after which the afternoon was devoted to swimming and boating. Mrs. Atkinson's guests were Paty van Valkenburg, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Kate Singlehurst, Miss Mildred Chapman, Miss Gladys Halstead, George Bromley, Ernest Mott-Smith, Stanley Mott-Smith.

A Card Party in Manoa.

A five hundred party was the form of entertainment Miss Charlotte Blake chose for a few of her friends last night at her home in Manoa valley. Among those present were Miss Gladys Halstead, Miss Doris Noble, Miss Gertrude Blake, Harold H. Johnston, Billy Noble, Mr. Lake, Roy Graham and the hostess.

Dinner at the Country Club.

In honor of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White of Fresno, California, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. White entertained informally at dinner at the Country Club last evening. An artistic arrangement of astors and parsnips formed an attractive centerpiece for the table, at which covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent, Miss Kline, Mr. Austin White and the host and hostess.

Society Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rietow spent Sunday at Haleiwa.

Miss May Kleugel, who has spent a part of the summer on Kauai, returned to Honolulu Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Archer Irwin of Hilo left in the Wilhelmina on Wednesday for an extended tour of the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall and their

Mrs. Baldwin Wood and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pope in Burlingame.

Mrs. Thomas E. Wall and her little daughter Rosella are among the passengers expected on the Matsonia on Tuesday. Mrs. Wall has been visiting relatives in California for several weeks.

One of Honolulu's most charming society matrons whose return on the Matsonia is anticipated with much pleasure is Mrs. A. J. Campbell. She will be accompanied by her two sons, Reuben and James.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lindsay, with their two daughters, Annie and Edith and their son Adam, Jr., who have been visiting in Honolulu, will return to their home in Hilo by the Mauna Kea this afternoon.

Mrs. Boone who has been in Honolulu for some time with her son and daughter, Captain and Mrs. J. T. Boone, left for the mainland in the Manchuria yesterday for a six months' tour of the mainland.

Mrs. Hatch, wife of Captain Henry J. Hatch of Fort Armstrong, left in the transport Sheridan on Thursday en route to California where she will remain for some time and where her son will prepare for West Point.

Letters from Mrs. Gussie Schmidt who is visiting at the Parker Ranch on Hawaii say that she is enjoying the cool breezes of Hawaii and that the date of her return to Honolulu has not been decided at present.

Lieut. John R. Mahr, one of the popular officers of the Thetis, left in the Sheridan on Thursday for Norfolk, Virginia. Mr. Mahr has lived in Honolulu for some time and was well known both in the service and civilian circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bush with their family have returned to town and have opened their Kewalo street home. The Bushes have spent the summer months at Aiea where they have entertained at a number of informal functions.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Livingstone Watrous (Charlotte Reichman) are expected home in the Matsonia Tuesday. Lieutenant and Mrs. Watrous have been spending their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and will make their home at Schofield Barracks.

Miss Glenna McCracken, whose engagement to Geoffrey Podmore was announced in the early summer, will return to Honolulu in the Matsonia on Tuesday. No definite plans have been made for the wedding as yet, but it is expected that the affair will take place in the near future.

Mrs. Harmon Anderson, who has spent several days at Haleiwa with her sister, Mrs. Orville N. Tyler (Emeline Magoon), returned to her home on Kewalo street on Thursday. Lieutenant and Mrs. Tyler came to town with Mrs. Anderson and will remain here for the week-end.

Miss Antonette Foster and her mother, who have been touring Europe and the Orient for the past year, returned to Honolulu Thursday morning. Miss Foster is a teacher at Punahou Academy and members of her classes expect to hear many interesting stories this year of the experiences of their teacher.

Mrs. Francis Gay, who has been one of the most charming hostesses of the summer, accompanied by her son Ernest, was a departing passenger in the Wilhelmina Wednesday. The house party at the Gay home on Kaula was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year. Mrs. Gay will remain in the East until next summer.

One of Honolulu's most charming society women who expects to spend the winter in California is Mrs. Arthur Wilder. Mrs. Wilder only returned to the islands in June and her many friends here were in hopes that she would delay her pleasure trip until the first of the year.

Mrs. Mary Gunn, who has been in the east this summer, will return to Honolulu in the Matsonia next Tuesday. Mrs. Gunn has been studying the newest of the dances that are amusing society at Newport and it is expected that she will introduce them to Honolulu this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering are expected in Honolulu in the Matsonia on Tuesday. During her last visits in Honolulu Mrs. Deering was a most charming hostess at informal Sunday night chafing dish suppers. In fact Mrs. Deering initiated the custom and for more than a season chafing dish suppers were the rage.

Capt. George Steunenberg, the army poet, was a departing passenger in the transport Sheridan Thursday. Captain Steunenberg has been confined to the Fort Shafter hospital for several weeks and as his illness is considered serious it was decided by the authorities that he should be sent to San Francisco for further treatment.

Miss Grace Carter, the charming niece of Mr. Renny Scott, left for the mainland in the Wilhelmina on Wednesday. Miss Carter was one of the most popular members of the younger set and she made hosts of friends while in the islands. She was feted extensively and was hostess at a number of delightful functions during her sojourn in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooke (Muriel Howatt), who left a few months ago to spend their honeymoon touring Europe, were last heard from aboard the Celtic homeward bound. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, who were married here in the spring, are two of the most popular members of society and their many friends and relatives are anxiously awaiting more definite news from them.

Miss Phoebe Carter, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, left in the Wilhelmina on Wednesday to resume her studies in the east. Miss Phoebe and Miss Elizabeth have spent the summer with their parents and were hostesses at numerous informal entertainments during the summer months. Miss Elizabeth will remain in Honolulu this year.

Among the society folk who are seeking refuge from the warm September breezes are Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have closed their house in College Hills and have moved to Kala. It is expected that Mrs. Campbell, who is one of Honolulu's delightful hostesses, will entertain at a number of beach parties during the month.

Alexander Anderson, who has spent the summer with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Anderson, left in the Manchuria yesterday to resume his studies in the east. Mr. Anderson was a member of the class of 1913, Punahou academy, and at the close of his four years' course was presented with the trustees loving cup and his name was inscribed upon the bronze tablet in Pauahi hall, Punahou's "roll of honor."

Miss Blanche Folsome and Mrs. Fredericka Davis, two teachers at Punahou Academy, are expected in Honolulu within the next few days. Some time ago an item from one of the Manila papers spoke of two American ladies in the Philippines who were stranded there without funds. No names were mentioned and it was not until a few days ago that it was learned that the ladies were Miss Folsome and Mrs. Davis.

One of Honolulu's popular society girls who has been unable to attend most of the recent functions, and whose absence from the entertainments has left a noticeable void, is Miss Margaret Center. Miss Center was injured in an auto accident a few weeks ago, and has been confined to her bed ever since.

Her host of friends, however, keep the sick room a gala scene with quantities of fragrant flowers. It is hoped that Miss Center will soon be able to resume her place in society as one of the leaders in the ever happy younger set.

The friends of Mr. William Warren of Trent Trust Company are regretting the fact that he is to leave for the Orient in the very near future, and that he will remain there for some time. Prior to his giving up his position the members of the firm presented him with a handsome gold watch.

A charming acquisition to Honolulu society this winter will be Miss Virginia Sullivan of San Francisco, who will arrive in Honolulu on the Matsonia Tuesday. While in the islands Miss Sullivan will be the house-guest of Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, one of the brides of the army set. She will also spend some weeks as the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. S. A. Campbell at Schofield Barracks. Miss Sullivan was one of the bridesmaids at the O'Hara-Cronan wedding, which was one of the smartest social events in San Francisco last spring.

A bit of news that will be most welcome to the members of the younger set is the anticipated return of Miss Carol Low, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Low. Miss Carol has been in Boston for the past two years and expected to remain there through

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N.E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

The winter at least. Her plans have been changed, however, and she will again be seen in Honolulu in October. Miss Low has devoted most of her time to the study of art and aesthetic dancing. Letters from her teachers in art have been most encouraging and her work in the life classes has been particularly good.

"Ainamau," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Montrose Graham, is to be leased for two or three years, as Mrs. Graham, whose health has been very poor for the past several years is to leave for the east in order to try the benefit of the same.

Miss Hazel Buckland will open her dancing classes for children this afternoon at Odd Fellows' hall. Miss Buckland has studied the latest fads in dancing this summer and it is hoped that she will open an evening class for the "grown-ups" in the near future.

(Additional society on page five.)

'OUR Muvvers Use BEST : Don't YOURS?'

Ah! how fortunate for the welfare of little children that Mothers can secure such a good bread component as

Centennial's BEST Flour

A flour that is safe for the tender stomachs of little tots: a flour that undergoes the most rigid of inspections during its whole process of manufacture.

MAKES MORE LOAVES TO THE SACK

Henry May & Co., Ltd.

Distributors

Phone 1271

